Excused:

Jean Le Rouzic
Susan Lifrieri-Lowry

- Pension: Nothing to report.
- Death Benefits: Nothing to report.
- Sickness Benefits: Nothing to report.
- Culinarian Home Foundation: Terry Newman reported in Jean Le Rouzic's absence. On January 25th, nine out of nine residents received the first COVID vaccination; eleven out of thirteen staff members received the vaccination. The next vaccination will be administered on February 15th. Terry said they are down three residents, they currently have nine residents at the Home. They are looking for new residents, but that is difficult to do. The new resident will have to be COVID tested, if accepted, they will have to quarantine for 14 days in their room.
- Dinner Dance: It was the decision to postpone the Dinner Dance to be held in April.
- Picnic: A discussion was held regarding the picnic. Jean F. Claude said it is best to postpone or cancel the Picnic. Maurice Pailleret said we should wait until March or April to make a decision. President Pascal said the main goal is to protect the people living at the Home. It doesn't look promising. Terry Newman was asked his thoughts and he said they want a party, but he doesn't know. The Home is being treated like a nursing home. It's hard to say, there are many rules and regulations to follow. He doesn't see things getting normal until the end of the year.
- Newsletter: Louise Hoffman said the next issue will begin to be built. A deadline date will be figured out, perhaps combine a spring and summer issue? She will reach out to members for articles and recipes.
